

December 14, 2025

Your Majesty,

It is with great honour that I write to inform you that, as of December 14, 2025, the Hokorian State formally recognises the Kingdom of Salanda as a sovereign and independent state.

I was pleased to hear you wanted to restore the past ties that Hokoria and Salanda had, which were severed back in October 27, 2023 as a directive of the then King Arōnis I following an attempt to make our officials defect from Hokoria to Salanda in the wake of our condemnation a day prior.

To this day, the Hokorian State and the Kingdom of Salanda do not see eye-to-eye on various international affairs issues, but it is my hope that we can set an example to the community that even two nations with such significant differences in official policy can have relations rooted in respect for each other's culture, understanding of each other's sovereignty and a tolerance for each other's policies and opinions.

Though this simple act of recognition is significant and it is our hope that this act of recognition may serve as the foundation for the relationship between our two nations, I look forward to the prospect of restoring formal diplomatic relations with your Government.

Sincerely,

Willow I

Koru of the Hokorian State
