International Union for Cooperation and Communities

Serenia Treaty on Reforming the International Union for Cooperation and Communities

Between the Republic of Bushistan, the Unitary Republic of Curnon and the Hokorian State.

Article 1- Amendment

1. The Charter is immediately amended from the original text to the text of the Hokorian proposal for the renewed Charter of the IUCC.

Article 2- Interim authority

1. His Excellency the President of Bushistan, Their Excellency the Grand Premier of Curnon and Their Majesty the Koru of Hokoria will serve as co-Presidents of the Union until the Union Chamber is elected and a President is elected in accordance with the renewed Charter.
2. No Presidential decision may be made without receiving the support from at least two co-Presidents.
3. The Presidency shall have the authority to admit new member states without the proceedings of the Union Chamber and the Delegates' Chamber, until the Union Chamber is elected and a President is elected in accordance with the renewed Charter. Accession of a new member shall require the support of all three co-Presidents.
4. The Delegates' Chamber shall assume the responsibilities and powers of the Union Chamber, including to legislate, until the Union Chamber is elected and a President is elected in accordance with the renewed Charter.
5. The Union Chamber shall be elected before October 31, 2026.

Article 3- Custodians

1. The Hokorian State shall appoint one individual to serve as Custodian of the Union, and the Unitary Republic of Curnon shall appoint one individual to serve as Custodian of the Union.
2. There shall be no limitations on who may be appointed as Custodian by each state.
